Position up for election which require a nomination form is:

Federation's executive committee position:

- President

Process to apply for the abovementioned position

For all communications with the Chief Election Officer or the Secretary of Elections please use the following email address: FEESPElection@csn.qc.ca.

Any person interested in submitting their candidacy for the President's position is asked to send a request to receive a nomination form to the following email address FEESPElection@csn.qc.ca.

The candidate and 5 people endorsing their nomination must all be official delegates to FEESP's Special Federal Council. Information on how to endorse a candidate can be found on the nomination form. The candidate has until October 25, 2021 at noon to provide 5 endorsements to their nomination.

In all cases, upon receipt of a completed nomination or endorsement form, the email will serve as a signature for the person sending it.

Completed nomination forms will be posted on the federation's website (www.feesp.csn.qc.ca).

A confirmation of reception via email will be sent to each candidate. A confirmation of reception of an endorsement form via email will be sent to each endorser with the candidate in cc.

If the candidate would like a flyer to be shared with council participants, it should be attached when sending the nomination form. Under no circumstances may the logo of the CSN or any of its organizations appear on this flyer.

The deadline to receive nomination forms, endorsements and flyers is October 25, 2021 at noon. The email's date and time stamp will be used for this purpose.

In his report, the Chief Election Officer will outline the voting procedure by secret virtual ballot and will proceed with the nomination of people whose nomination forms are in order.

If there is or remains only one candidate applying for the position, the Chief Election Officer shall declare that person elected by acclamation. However, on the other hand, if there are several candidates for the position, a vote by secret virtual ballot shall be taken on October 26, 2021. In the latter case, candidates will have an opportunity to make a maximum 3-minute presentation at that time.
