

School
support staff

Negotiating
in order
to better serve
your children

School
support staff

Negotiating
in order
to better serve
your children

School support employees are the 81 categories of employment who help/support your children throughout their academic careers.

They are, among others :

- * The school secretary, who makes it possible for your child's school to run smoothly every single day;
- * The daycare educator, who plans educational activities for your child according to the school's curriculum;
- * The student supervisor, who ensures your child's safety during breaks and transitions between classes;
- * The special education technician, who helps your child navigate through their daily challenges;
- * The caretaker, who ensures the cleanliness of your child's place of education;
- * The skilled worker, whose efforts contribute to the maintenance and good condition of your child's school.

Without the school support staff, the schools would fall by the wayside.

They deserve our respect.

The Government must commit to serious negotiations in order to improve the support staff's working conditions and consequently, the learning conditions of your children.

To know more about the school support staff, please visit facebook.com/Secteurscolairefeespcsn

School support employees are the 81 categories of employment who help/support your children throughout their academic careers.

They are, among others :

- * The school secretary, who makes it possible for your child's school to run smoothly every single day;
- * The daycare educator, who plans educational activities for your child according to the school's curriculum;
- * The student supervisor, who ensures your child's safety during breaks and transitions between classes;
- * The special education technician, who helps your child navigate through their daily challenges;
- * The caretaker, who ensures the cleanliness of your child's place of education;
- * The skilled worker, whose efforts contribute to the maintenance and good condition of your child's school.

Without the school support staff, the schools would fall by the wayside.

They deserve our respect.

The Government must commit to serious negotiations in order to improve the support staff's working conditions and consequently, the learning conditions of your children.

To know more about the school support staff, please visit facebook.com/Secteurscolairefeespcsn
