

USEFUL INFORMATION

Training sessions

Since the Congress begins at 1:00 p.m., training sessions will be offered in the morning. No preregistration is needed. Just show up with your badge and document package.

Welcome Session for New Delegates Monday, June 3 — 8:30 to 9:30 a.m.

As the name suggests, this training session is for new delegates to learn about operating structures of the CSN, federation and central councils.

Demystifying the Treasurer's Report Monday, June 3 — 9:30 to 10:30 a.m.

This session will help you understand how FEESP financial reports are structured so you can quickly find financial information and understand how budget items are organized in relation to federation activities.

Public Speaking Monday, June 3 — 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

This training session provides you with the tools to manage your turn at the microphone and address the large audience always on hand at this event.

Sectoral meetings

In the coming weeks, you'll receive a convocation to a meeting of unions in your sector as part of the congress.

This is also where you'll elect executive committee members to represent your sector's orientations during the next mandate.

Questions of privilege

The deadline to submit a question to the Questions of Privilege Committee is Wednesday, June 5, at adjournment.

Please send your question of privilege by email to stephanie.gratton@csn.qc.ca.

Themed lunches

The themed lunch about crystalline silica organized by the Health-Safety-Environment Committee will take place on Tuesday, June 4. Committee members will hand out 50 tickets to attend during the morning break on Tuesday.

The Status of Women Committee will hand out 50 tickets at its kiosk on Tuesday afternoon for its lunch that will take place on Wednesday, June 5. Manon Tremblay, president of the Conseil central du Saguenay-Lac-St-Jean, will speak about the World March of Women and her trip to Tunisia.

Thursday, June 6 — Pizza and Solidarity evening

As soon as the plenary or your sectoral meetings adjourn on Thursday, June 6, we invite you to go to the Boston Pizza located inside the Delta. A buffet (pizza, chicken wings and fries) will be offered to you by the FEESP.

Afterwards, shuttles will take you to the Hangar in the Chicoutimi port area where the solidarity evening will be held from 8 p.m. The night's theme will be Music Festival and a fun evening of games, dancing, draws in a festive atmosphere and more is planned!

The shuttles will run in a loop between the Delta Saguenay, the Chicoutimi hotel, the La Saguenéenne hotel, the Comfort Inn and the Hangar until 2 a.m.

Buying a solidarity item gives you admittance to the evening as well as a chance to win a prize. This year, boxes of chocolate from La Chocolaterie des Pères Trappistes in Mistassini will be on sale for $10.

Restaurants

We invite you to make your reservations now for lunches and dinners at various restaurants in the area (except for Thursday's dinner which will be offered by the FEESP) in the various restaurants in the area. For information purposes, note that we will adjourn between 5:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. and that several restaurants are located about fifteen minutes by car from the Delta Saguenay.

Note that some restaurants will only open if reservations have been made so it's important to book as soon as possible. You can refer to the map on our website to see all the restaurants near the Delta.

The Leucan-CSN Summer Camp

The FEESP is once again raising money for the Leucan-CSN Summer Camp Foundation, the only summer camp in Quebec for children with cancer and their families. A 50-50 draw will be held every day and items will be on sale at the Leucan kiosk from Monday to Friday. You'll find all the details in the enclosed letter. On behalf of sick kids and their families, thank you!

T-shirt order

Each union will assign one member of their delegation to manage t-shirts. That person will:

- Place one t-shirt order on behalf its union delegation.
- Collect the t-shirts for its delegation after registration.
- Distribute t-shirts to its delegation.

It's a unisex t-shirt in sizes ranging from 'small' to '5XL'. You can check size information here:
